Food for thought!

John the Baptist's life was fuelled by one burning passion – to point others to Jesus. In today's Gospel his cry from the heart calls for change.

Advent calls us to seek peace, with ourselves and with others – to forgive and try to mend broken relationships where we can. The Word of God today helps to nudge us into urgent action, recognising that if we really want to change, we have many opportunities to do so! When we were baptised, we received the gifts of the Holy Spirit. We received ...wisdom, understanding, courage, right judgment, knowledge, reverence, wonder and awe in the presence of God. These are gifts that will never wear out, and Advent is a time to really try and put them into practice. If only we and world leaders used these gifts as the Lord intended, maybe we could solve problems like...war, hunger, homelessness, climate change, the refugee crisis etc...only then would our world have real peace.

Praise Him!
