Food for thought!

In today's Gospel we see Jesus calling the first disciples; ordinary men who responded to the Lord. The call of the first disciples is so familiar to us that we tend to miss the wonder of the disciple's response, which was immediate and complete! Their immediate and willing response reveals both the authority of Jesus and the power of His invitation. They change from casting and mending their nets, to catching people and mending them through God's love. Jesus approached individuals who were very often ordinary people. That's what He wants, ordinary people like you and me to shine His light. He chooses us, not for what we are, but for what we are capable of becoming under his direction. Today's first Reading from the Prophet Isaiah says..."The people who have walked in darkness have seen a great light" Christianity is about light. In the end our purpose is not simply to shine for ourselves, but to shine His light that others can see. May our presence offer hope, our actions build trust, and our light help to catch people.

Praise Him!

The Pope's Intention

January: For Prayer with the Word of God

Let us pray that praying with the Word of God be nourishment for our lives and a source of hope in our communities, helping us to build a more fraternal and missionary Church.

Today's Gospel tells us of the calling of the first disciples.....

Come follow me and leave your net,
Find a path where truth will set.
Follow me—lay down your fears,
Simple words that changed the years.

They heard His voice beside the sea
A simple call – Come follow me.
The Lord had changed their earthly wish,
To catching people – not just fish.

So may we hear that same sweet call,
Step out in faith and give our all.
Step by step, through thick and thin,
We choose each day to follow Him.
